

New-born Monitoring chart for Doctors/GNM at PHC

Patient Name:.....Date of Child Birth:PHC:.....

Indicators			Hours
			0	4	8	12	16	20	24	30	36	42	48
1	Weight	Less than 1500 grams		NOT RELEVANT
		1500-upto 2000 grams (Has problems)
		2000-upto 2500 grams (no problems)
		2500 grams or more (no problems)
2	Axillary Temperature	>38 °C
		<32 °C
		36.5-38 °C
		32-36.4 °C
		36.5-37.4 °C
3	Breathing rate	60 or more/minute
		<30/ minute
		30-60/minute
		Difficulty- severe chest in drawing, or gasping
		Breathing normally
4	Jaundice	on palms or soles
		in eyes or face only
		nil
5	Sucking	Baby does not suck or swallow
		Baby does not suck well
		Baby feeding normal, good sucking and swallowing
6	Movement	Poor movement does not wake up
		Normal movement wakes up
7	Urine	Urine not passed	Not Relevant
		Urine passed
8	Stool	Stools not passed	Not Relevant
		Stool passed
9	Umbilicus	Umbilicus draining pus or blood
		Umbilicus healthy
10	Skin	Skin pustules more than 10
		Skin pustules less than 10
		Skin normal
11	Eyes	Pus from the eyes
		Eyes normal
12	Any visible birth defects (mark one or more present. Big head, tumor in the back (spine or under the head, cleft palate or cleft lip, deformity of hands or feet or down's syndrome are examples)
		Any other: _____

Danger Needs Referral
 Needs Intensive Monitoring
 Normal